

Privacy Notice for a Job Applicant

FläktGroup UK is committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses the personal data of prospective employees together with applicants and places the highest importance in compliance with all applicable data protection laws in force from time to time, including General Data Protection Regulations as enacted into UK law.

We will collect and hold personal data for the purpose of processing your application and if appointed to one of our vacancies, it will form the basis of your personal record.

It will also enable us to share information about future opportunities that we hope will be of interest to you. We would like to stay in contact, so we'll request to add you to our talent pool for a period of 12 months so we can keep you in mind for, and let you know about future opportunities. You always have the option of asking us to remove your details.

For more information on how we will manage your data please see our policy which sets out FläktGroup's commitment to data protection, and individual rights and obligation in relation to personal data.
